

AUT 106 : Quality Control and Inspection Techniques

This course provides the student with a basic understanding of quality assurance including the history of the quality movement in the United States; national and international standards for quality management systems; the impact of quality on an organization's performance; group problem solving; and statistical methods, such as statistical process control (SPC); process capability studies, quality tools, idea-generating tools, and corrective and preventive actions.

Program

Automotive Manufacturing Technology

Hours 3

Theory Hours 3