

MAT 228 : Medical Assistant Review Course

This course includes a general review of administrative and clinical functions performed in a medical office. The course will assist the student or graduate in preparing for national credentialing examination.

Program

Medical Assistant

Hours 1

Theory Hours 1