

EET 290 : Electronics Project

This course integrates skills and knowledge from other courses. Upon course completion, a student will be able to design, fabricate, analyze, program, and/or operate an electronic system under faculty supervision. Emphasis will be placed on skills identified by the instructor.

Program

Electronic Engineering Technology

Hours 3

Lab Hours 6

Prerequisites

Advisor approval