

ESL 041 : Reading and Writing II

This is the beginning course in reading and writing for non-native English speakers. ESL 041 must be taken in conjunction with ESL 031. This course provides instruction in a variety of readings and instruction in basic writing skills. Upon completion, students will demonstrate improvement in English reading and comprehension, as well as improvement in English writing skills. Students must earn a C or higher to progress to the next level.

Program

Alabama Language Institute (ESL)

Hours 3