

HIS 260 : Alabama History

This course surveys the development of the state of Alabama from pre-historic times to the present. The course presents material on the discovery, exploration, colonization, territorial period, ante-bellum Alabama, reconstruction, and modern history.

Program

History

Hours 3