

MST 209 : Physical Supply and Distribution Management

This course provides a comprehensive study of current logistics systems. Topics include organizing and analyzing logistics information, forecasting potential logistical problems, and making recommendations to coordinate actions to resolve problems.

Program

Management and Supervision

Hours 3