

MTH 116 : Mathematical Applications

This course provides practical applications of mathematics and includes selected topics from consumer math, algebra, and geometry. The course covers integers, percent, interest, ratio and proportion, measurement systems, linear equations, and problem solving. NOTE: This course will not satisfy the Alabama Transfers higher math requirement.

Program

Mathematics

Hours 3

Theory Hours 3