

MTT 244 : CNC Turning Lab II

This course covers advanced computer numeric control (CNC) turning machine setup and operating procedures. Upon completion, the student should be able to load a CNC program and setup and operate a CNC turning machine to produce a specified part. Related safety and inspection and process adjustment are also covered.

Program

Precision Machining

Hours 3

Lab Hours 6