RAD 227 : Review Seminar

This course provides a consolidated and intensive review of the basic areas of expertise needed by the entry level technologist. Topics include basic review of all content areas, test taking techniques and job seeking skills. Upon completion students will be able to pass comprehensive tests of topics covered in the Radiologic Technology Program.

Program

Radiography

Hours 2

Theory Hours 2