

Alabama Community College System Mission Statement

The Alabama Community College System mission is to provide a unified system of institutions dedicated to excellence in delivering academic education, adult education, and workforce development.