

ABR 255: Steering and Suspension

This course introduces students to the various types of suspension and steering systems used in the automotive industry. Emphasis is placed on system components, suspension angles and effect of body/frame alignment on these components and angles.

hours: 3

Lab Hours: 5

Theory Hours: 1

Program: Auto Collision Repair