

ACR 150: Basic Sheet Metal Processes

This course provides instruction in sheet metal hand processes. Topics include the use of bench tools and hand brake, with an emphasis on bending, shearing and notching. This course also includes the principles of layout and design.

Credits: 6

Lab Hours: 4

Theory Hours: 2

Program: Air Conditioning and Refrigeration