

ART 258 : Photographic and Media Problems: Digital Media

This course deals with special problems in the student's area of interest. Emphasis is placed on design, technique and results. Upon completion the student will be able to produce professional quality photographs in one particular area of photography.

Program

Art

Hours 3