

AUT 230 : Preventive and Predictive Maintenance

This course focuses on the concepts and applications of preventive maintenance. Topics include the introduction of alignment equipment, job safety, tool safety, preventive maintenance concepts, procedures, tasks, and predictive maintenance concepts. Upon course completion, students will demonstrate the ability to apply proper preventive maintenance and explain predictive maintenance concepts. Also taught as INT 126.

Program

Automotive Manufacturing Technology

Hours 3

Lab Hours 4

Theory Hours 1