

AUT 291: Automotive Cooperative Education

This course is designed to give students practical, on-the-job experiences in all phases of automotive manufacturing under the supervision of a qualified professional. Grades are based on the successful completion of the work experience as judged by the students' work, supervisor, and faculty coordinator.

Credits: 1

Internship Hours: 5

Program: Automotive Manufacturing Technology