

CAR 133: Roofing and Ceiling Systems Lab

The course provides students with practical experience in roof and ceiling layout, framing, and installation. Upon completion, the student should be able to layout and frame a roof and ceiling, cut and install rafters, and joists, install trusses, cut and apply roof decking and roofing materials, and apply job site safety.

Credits: 3

Lab Hours: 9

Program: Construction Technology