

CIS 251 : C++ Programming

This course is an introduction to the C++ programming language including object oriented programming. Topics include: problem solving and design; control structures; objects and events; user interface construction; and document and program testing.

Program

Computer Science Technology

Hours 3

Prerequisite Courses

MTH 100