

CIS 286: Computerized Management Info Systems

The nature of computerized management information systems, problems created by the computer relative to personnel, components of computer systems, programming, and application of computers to business problems.

hours: 3

Prerequisites:

CIS 146

Program: Computer Science Technology