

DAT 123 : Dental Assisting Seminar

This course is designed to discuss the students' clinical experiences, the résumé, and interview process. Emphasis will be placed on new technology in dental practices as related to dental assisting and the certification exam review. Upon completion, students should be able to successfully complete the Dental Assisting National Board Examination to become a Certified Dental Assistant.

Program

Dental Assisting

Hours 4