

DDT 212: Intermediate Architectural Drafting

This second course in architectural design and drafting continues with more advanced and detailed architectural plans. Topics include interior elevations, plot plans, and interior details. Upon completion, students should be able to draw and specify advanced level plans including various architectural details.

hours: 3

Lab Hours: 4

Theory Hours: 1

Prerequisites:

DDT 132

Program: Engineering Design Technology