

HUS 102 : Introduction to Casework

In this course the basic principles and procedures in problem resolution are examined through the presentation of cases, problems, and solutions. Emphasis is placed on the application and effective role of the case aide. Upon completion of this course, the student will be familiar with the procedures for making referrals and sharing information with the professional staff.

Program

Human Services

Hours 3

Theory Hours 3

Prerequisites

Admission to Human Services Program and permission of instructor