

MTT 292: Cooperative Education in Machine Tool Technology

Students work on a part-time basis in a job directly related to machine tool technology. The employer and supervising instructor evaluate students' progress. Upon course completion, students will be able to apply skills and knowledge in an employment setting.

Credits: 3

Internship Hours: 15

Program: Precision Machining