

MUS 100: Convocation

This course (required for music majors/minors each semester) is designed to expose students to a variety of repertory styles and to give students an opportunity to practice individual performance skills. Emphasis is placed on exposure to performance and lectures by guest artists, faculty, or students, and on personal performance(s) in class each semester.

hours: 1

Theory Hours: 1

Program: Music