

SOC 247 : Marriage and Family

This course is a study of family structures and families and their evolution. It explores the sociological, psychological, biological, and economic factors relevant to marriage and family life.

Program

Sociology

Hours 3

Prerequisite Courses

SOC 200